

Dutch Migration to Tasmania in 1950: Motivation, Intention and Assimilation

by Kees Wierenga

A thesis submitted as part of the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts with Honours in History
School of History and Classics
University of Tasmania
October, 2005

Declarations

I certify that this thesis is all my own work, except as indicated and acknowledged, and that I have not submitted it for any other award.

Date

I place no restriction on the loan or reading of this thesis and no restriction, subject to the law of copyright, on its reproduction in any form.

Date

Kees Wierenga
PO Box 89
Kingston
TAS 7051

ph: (03) 6229 4272
email: kmww@utas.edu.au

Contents

List of abbreviations	iv
Acknowledgements	iv
Illustration The G7 group	v
Introduction	1
Chapter 1 - Motivations	10
Chapter 2 - Intentions	20
Chapter 3 - Assimilation	26
Conclusion	36
Appendix A	39
Bibliography	40

List of Abbreviations

ABC	Australian Building Corporation
CCC	Commonwealth Credit Corporation
C of E	Church of England
G7	The group of men who agreed to come to Tasmania to start a new life together, and more fully described in these pages.
HEC	The Hydro-Electric Commission
Hfl	the Dutch Guilder, worth approx 1/4 of an Australian pound in 1950.
NIPO	The Netherlands Institute for Public Opinion
OVMG	Oorlog Verzetsmateriaal Groningen (WWII Resistance Museum, Groningen)
RSL	Returned Servicemen League

Acknowledgments

I would like to acknowledge and thank -

Wim Folkerts for providing the ABC letters,

Kusha Bolt for forwarding the Acte van Overeenkomst and the Deed of Contract and lots of tips along the way, Also to my cousin

Henk Wierenga for finding useful information in Groningen, and

The many who contributed pieces of family memories to enrich this work.

Thanks also to -

Dr Stefan Petrow for gentle encouragement and prompt guidance,

Dr Elizabeth Freeman for continual enthusiasm for studying history excellently,

The G7 for choosing to live in Tasmania and leaving so much documentation to record the process and employing my father, and my wife and children for giving me the time and space to indulge in this work.

Let me encourage all readers to forward suggested additions, deletions and corrections to me so that justice may be done to the history of the pioneers described in these pages.